

UDC 81.11

*Tatyana V. Kravets,
Amur State University
Blagoveshchensk, Russian Federation
e-mail: t_kravetc@mail.ru*

MEANS OF REALIZATION OF SPEECH ACTS OF PARTING PATTERN IN THE ETIQUETTE-VERBAL COMMUNICATION OF GERMANY

Abstract

The paper discusses the study of speech etiquette formulas i.e. stereotyped expressions used in the communicative situation of parting in German culture. Examples of language etiquette formulas in German are analyzed, which show the wide pragmatic potential of linguistic means of realization of etiquette statements in farewell speech acts. The politeness category as the basis for verbal etiquette, and its manifestation using phonetic, lexical, grammatical and stylistic means are considered. The author tries to demonstrate the variety of pragmatic means in speech acts of German parting pattern.

Keywords: speech acts, pragmalinguistics, speech etiquette, phonetic, lexical, grammatical and stylistic verbal means, German parting pattern.